

Message in a Book

As part of the Arts Engagement Project we will be placing anonymous messages, stories and quotes in library books in Burnley Central Library.

We hope these messages will surprise, intrigue and amuse library users over the coming months and years.

We Need Your Words

We need stories, quotes, memories, single words, poems.....anything you would be happy to share with a stranger.

You can

email them to cathford@mail.com send them to Cath Ford (artist)

c/o Burnley Central Library, Grimshaw Street Burnley, BB11 2BD or drop them off at the desk at either the lending library, children's library or community history library for the attention of Cath Ford.

Deadline for receiving messages is 5pm Wednesday 29th August.
Messages will be copied and used in the exhibition to be held on 1st September in the library before being placed into books.
